Firefighter Daniel Sweeney
Scholarship Fund
Mission Statement

The Firefighter Daniel Sweeney Scholarship Fund was established in 2012 after Daniel, a 25-year old member of the Philadelphia Fire Department, was killed on April 9th, 2012 while battling a 5-alarm warehouse fire in the Kensington area of the city. A 60 ft. brick warehouse wall collapsed on a furniture store, killing Daniel and his lieutenant.

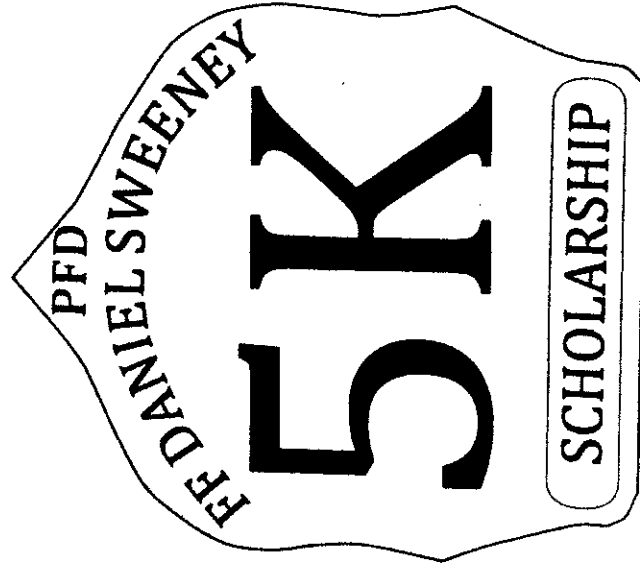

The scholarship fund established in Daniel's memory assists students of Philadelphia Archdiocesan schools with their tuition costs.
